LONDON, Jan. 7.—(Editorial)—That the British government was seeking to form a united front with the French for the international reparations conference to be held at Lausanne was apparent at a meeting Wednesday of a cabinet sub-committee.

Consistency to expectations. Viscount F. of Lathom, former chairman of the committee, who stood for British interests at the Lausanne conference in 1929 made his point of view clear. He pointed out the meeting of the sub-committee on reparations was held at Lausanne.

The Frederick Leith-Ross, British treasury expert, who was in London to link between the British and French governments in the reparations conference at the Lausanne conference also attended.

Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald said that his view was in favor of a link between the British and French governments in the reparations conference at the Lausanne conference also attended.

Divorce Mill Ground Busily During 1931

Total of 156 Marital Knots Severed in Alberta Courts

Hard times may or may not have had an effect upon the marriages and divorces of Alberta during 1931, but apparently the divorce mill found plenty of work to keep its wheels grinding.

Statistics were able to find that the divorce mill was able to sever 156 marital knots during the year.

In the past year just closed a total of 156 divorces were granted in Alberta, an increase of 15 over 1930.

Punch Board With Motor Car Prizes Is Newest Racket

Customers Appear and In No Time Owner Is Filled with Purse

WINNIPEG, Jan. 7.—A super punch-board, on which you get a push for $10 and an automobile if you punch a lucky number, has come to Winnipeg and already it has pulled in a big crowd. The trouble was, apparently, there were too many lucky numbers.

Members of the board had not a filling station cover for what police describe as a "good round" and against displayed his own gambling device.

Heard the punch-board salesmen departed with a big car drive into the gas station. It took a while in a hurry but not in too much of a hurry to become interested in the board. They decided to have a look at it.

The first two $10 punches netted nothing but the third won an automobile. Apparently, the salesmen were not too sure of their chances and they were excited.

The gas station man thereupon went out to the car and found the owner and for $10, he was giving a cheque for the amount. Later he notified his back to stop playing.

Police took over the board and are looking for the four men who brought it here. The filling station man is a heavy user, his cheque was cashed through a private source.

HOOPER'S SENATE MEASURES ARE GIVEN SENATE

Solons to Get Busy Today on Tremendous Finance Corporation

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 7.—Two vital measures of President Hoover's emergency relief program went to the Senate Wednesday with the support of a preponderant bi-partisan majority ready to speed them along.

Shortly after the $2,000,000,000 reconstruction finance corporation bill was before the Senate, the banking committee ordered to the floor with a favorable report the measure increasing the capitalization of the Federal land banks by $100,000,000.

The Senate will begin work on one of the tremendous finance corporation bills which is to put into effect the national credit structure.

The finance corporation bill carries with it an amendment adopted by a special committee and passed by the full Senate Banking committee in the approval of the measure, stipulating that the corporation, when organized, shall be a corporation of the United States and shall be a corporation of the United States.

Senator Carter Glass, Democrat, said the adoption of the amendment by the subcommittee was unanimous, and that the exception of Canada was a compliment to Canadian business and a neighborly gesture.

Representative James C. McHenry of Kansas, who was named as a member of the committee for the addition of the amendment, said the committee of the House of Representatives, Currency and Banking Committee.

Meeting Gives Endorsation to Major Street Plan

Representatives from South Side Level Some Criticism at Planners

City Council to Approve All Recommendations of Commission

General approval was accorded the major street plan as mapped out by the Town Planning Commission at an informal meeting of the committee, the city council and parties interested held in the council chamber, city hall, Wednesday night. Some criticism was leveled at the commission from representatives of the South Side, Forest Heights and Norwood, but in the main the meeting approved the whole plan as outlined by H. Milton Martin, chairman of the commission. Deputy-Mayor F. A. Kruller acted as chairman and there was a good representation of aldermen present.

Mr. Martin dealt with the plan in detail, pointing out that city-owned property which came under the major street plan should be reserved for town planning purposes. Part of the plan provides for the widening of four-travelled streets to sufficient width which would ensure the accommodation of six lanes of traffic.

He stated that he wanted to make it clear that the commission was acting only in an advisory capacity to the city council, and that all recommendations made by the commission would have to receive the approval of council before they would become effective.

INTERESTS OF CITY

"The commission believes that the major street plan is in the best interests of the city, and is being turned over to council for its consideration. We sincerely hope that it will meet with full approval," Mr. Martin concluded.

H. L. Seymour, director of town planning for the provincial government, declared that the major cities in North America were vitally interested in the subject of street planning, as action taken there here or there would result in the saving of millions of dollars in the future. It is a necessity for every major city to have a major street plan," he declared.

Congratulating the commission on its work, Mr. Martin, president of the South Side Business Men's association, stated that the plan was well received by the business community, but some criticism was being made. Some of the criticism was based on the fact that the plan provided for the widening of streets, which would result in the loss of business, being taken away from White Avenue merchants.

Amidst Mr. Martin's statements, Wm. Werner, also of the association, declared that the commission was objecting to: (1) the proposed diagonal cut-off from 45 avenue and 51 street to White Avenue and 75 street; (2) the proposed diagonal cut-off from 56 avenue and 104 street and 68 avenue and 104 street.

SPRINT STADIUM SITE

Further objections were received from Norwood when John Dean, representative of that district, pointed out that approval was not being given to the proposed cut-off from 101 ave. and 92 street through the old penitentiary grounds to Alberta avenue. He stated that this would spoil the stadium site.

A complaint was received from W. Halliwell, of Forest Heights, who said that he was under the impression that the commission had asked the commission to reserve certain city-owned property in that area which was planned to use in the future in the interests of the major street plan. Martin, responding to this erroneous impression, said that no such step had been taken.

James Reid and J. A. Clark expressed themselves as being in full approval of the major street plan, but planning that steps should be taken immediately for reserving property which would be needed in planning the streets for future Edmonton, and that a program toward this end should be undertaken immediately.

Mr. P. D. Tanqueray, secretary of the commission, spoke briefly of the support of the plan by the majority of the community leagues in the city, which organizations he had addressed from time to time on town planning matters.

MAKE CHECK OF CATHOLICS IN CITY SCHOOLS

Board to Determine Number Receiving Tuition or Employment

The Edmonton Public School Board, meeting in committee of school management on Wednesday evening, agreed to co-operate with H. Bassett, in the matter of investigation of the number of Roman Catholics receiving tuition or employment in the Protestant schools of the city.

"I should like to know how many Roman Catholic children are attending in the Edmonton Public Schools and also how many Roman Catholic teachers are teaching in the Edmonton Public Schools, so that we may be able to check up on those people who are receiving tuition or employment in the Protestant schools and paying taxes to the Board," said Mr. Bassett.

"I should like to see where we stand in the matter," said Mr. Bassett, "and then we can see what legal proceedings can be taken to rectify any wrong conditions which may exist. If there are taxes which should be paid to this board, then the way to see one or two exact points in the matter is to have a list of names."

"In the matter of corporation taxes, we should find out our position," Mr. Thomas Walker, the city assessor, said that he has no power to authorize a corporation to show a statement as to the number of Catholics or Protestants in the city.

"We want to see where we stand in the matter," said Mr. Bassett, "and then we can see what legal proceedings can be taken to rectify any wrong conditions which may exist. If there are taxes which should be paid to this board, then the way to see one or two exact points in the matter is to have a list of names."

Commerce Chamber To Make Visits To Towns In Alberta

Plans have been laid for the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce for proposed visits to boards of trades in other Alberta towns, according to information received from John Blue, secretary of the chamber. Wednesday, January 8, at which the James Ramsay grand chairman cup for field hockey competition will be presented to R. J. Blanks, of Athabasca.

The municipal district of Calgary is opening a new community hall, and an initiation has been received from the Calgary board of trade by the Chamber to attend the opening on January 11.

Officials have also been invited by the Weaksville Board of Trade to attend its annual meeting on January 11.

At an executive meeting of the Chamber Wednesday, a committee was appointed to make a report on the turnover and various rates.

The committee is composed of the following members: W. W. Preyer, chairman; G. B. Morrison, Cecil Blair, R. H. Cooper, F. D. Smith, J. Pearson, T. Ashworth, A. J. Brown and W. Montgomery.

This committee at Aqueduct experimental farm, British Columbia, indicated that they had had only one suitable sheep corp for the Peace River Valley.

Long Walk Home After Sleigh Upeats

Dumped into the snow when their horse shied and threw them out of the cutter in which they were riding, Mrs. W. J. Berte and daughter, living at Patricia, east of the city, were obliged to walk seven miles to their home, they reported to city police when claiming the animal which had been caught on the Post Road near the city limits. The horse shied when the two women were taking a short cut over a field and the cutter tipped over a snow-covered wheat shed.

REDDY FOX IS AFRAID TO GO HOME

Yes, sah, a chicken track an' goose to see, but I don't put neither in water in mah mouth—Use Billy Poon!

Reddy Fox thought of that saying of "Old Billy" a good many times when he was huddled through the Green Forest that night, afraid to go home. You see, he had almost died on Quaker the day and then night, and it was all his own fault. That was why he was afraid to go home. Billy Poon had been placed on the bank he had watched Quaker sail and in to him he was almost on the shore, where old Grizzly Fox was whirling and rolling and bawling about as if she were quite out of her senses. Indeed Reddy had been quite sure that she was when she began. It wasn't until he saw that curiously was drawing Grizzly right in so that in a minute or two Grizzly would be able to catch him; that he understood that Grizzly was anything but crazy and really was teaching him a new trick as well as trying to catch a dinner.

When he realized that he ought to have been ashamed of himself for doubting the smarts of Grizzly, and for thinking that he knew all there was to know. But he was too much excited for any such thoughts. Heater and never to the shore again. Quaker, his first and only friend, was whirling from Grizzly. Reddy's own eyes blinked with excitement. He would Quaker keep on right upon shore?

It was only when Grizzly's mouth would get him. Neater and neater and neater he came. Reddy's eyes would get him. He couldn't see as well as he had to look.

The bushes behind which he was lying were in his way. He wanted to see Grizzly make that jump which would mean a dinner for both of them. Forgetting what Grizzly had charged him, Reddy eagerly ran the head to look over the edge of the bank. He saw it just happened that the very minute Quaker changed to look that way. His quick eye caught the movement of Reddy's head, and in an instant all his curiosity vanished. That sharp face peering at him over the edge of the bank could mean but one thing—danger! It was a trap!

He saw through it now. Like a flash he turned. There was the whole of stiff wings beating the air and the feet of the old bird were in the air. Grizzly sprang, but she was too late and succeeded in doing no more than to get her foot.

Of course, Grizzly didn't know that.

BEAUTY QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Beauty Club and Sapping Chances

Dear Miss Leeds—(I am 25 years of age and beginning to show signs of a double chin. I am wondering if you would be kind enough to tell me what to do for this condition.) Also I notice lately that the muscles of my neck are becoming lax. My face has always been round and full. I am using lotions and creams. Is this correct?

Answer—Regular massage and exercise and the use of an antirug bandage will make the supple muscles of the neck and face firm and the facial muscles. After cleansing the face, face and neck with a good cleansing cream or oil, do a few special exercises that bring into play the neck and throat muscles. Bend the head back between the shoulders. Bend the head back and touch the chin and repeat five to ten times. Throw the head back as far as you can and retain the head loosely against the shoulders, first to right, forward, and then to the left and backward between the shoulders again.

After the cleansing and exercise period, the massage may follow. Put on some mild astringent and pat the fingers of both hands at the back of your neck, thumb at the center of the throat. Draw the thumb to the side of the neck while you massage the neck of the neck with the first fingers. Massage in this way for a few seconds and hold the chin as high as possible. Repeat the massage for several seconds. Gently slip the excess fat at the throat and neck with the back of the hands, palms outward. You may use sufficient massage after the cleansing, exercise and massage. Saturate a pad of absorbent cotton in rose alcohol or your favorite astringent and bind it over the double chin like a chin strap. The day the pad is against the excess flesh and let the astringent in the day. Age remains on the throat for twenty minutes or half an hour. Then remove the pad and pat on your skin lotion and dust with face powder. Be sure your correct posture will help. An extra policy makes it impossible for excess flesh to gather at the throat and neck and keeps the facial muscles from sagging. Several exercises, together with various massage movements, are given in my leaflet.

GASOLINE ALLEY

Bringing Home The Bad News

WELL, PHYLIS, WHEN DO YOU WANT TO START GOING SOMEWHERE I'M FIRED.

NOT REALLY, WALT, THAT COULDN'T BE.

NOT ENTIRELY, THE BOSS SAID I WAS FIRED FOR A MONTH OR TWO—BUT ON SALARY, DOC INSISTS I GOT TO HAVE A REST—RIGHT NOW.

I DON'T SEE HOW WE CAN—BUT OF COURSE WE WILL.

TOLD NO WICKER I DIDN'T SEE HOW I COULD EITHER BUT I'M GETTING SOLD ON THE IDEA.

THERE ARE THE CHILDREN—SHEEP IN SCHOOL, LOBA, RACHEL—THE HOUSE—SO MANY THINGS.

BUT YOU DO REST, WALT, YOU'RE DEAR.

FIRST I THOUGHT I WAS ALL RIGHT—THEN WHEN I THOUGHT IT OVER I WASN'T SO GOOD—NOW I'M SWEET, BUT DON'T TELL DOC.
